

THE END AT WORTH.

The final day at Worth for the season of 1901 was its banner day in regard to the attendance, which was very large. The half holiday crowd was out in full force, the grandstand, betting ring and esplanade being well crowded. The sport was excellent throughout and a better day's racing has not been witnessed hereabout in some time. The track was at its best and fast time was made throughout.

The star attraction was the Flyaway Handicap, a dash of one and one-eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward, with $1,000 added. Out of the nine originally carded to start Rolling Boer and Vulcain were scratched, leaving a good field of seven to start. Hildreth's entry, St. Marcos and Hermencia, was made the favorite at 9 to 5, while Denman Thompson was well fancied at 13 to 5. The race was a well contested affair throughout and was won by St. Marcos in impressive style. First Reseda and then Odnor showed the way, the latter holding the van until just before turning for home, where he fell away beaten and Denman Thompson darted into the lead. He seemed all over the winner when nearing the last eighth post, but here St. Marcos, which had been nursed cleverly up to this point, came with an irresistible rush and passed Denman Thompson with the utmost ease, winning by two lengths, while the latter just lasted long enough to beat the fast coming Omdurman a nose on the post for second money. Denman Thompson was thoroughly tired by the time the line had been reached. Omdurman could not get through at the head of the stretch until the natural spread came or else he would have been second. Hermencia ran an excellent race and was right there at the finish. Odnor ran a good race for a mile and then retired. Reseda showed well for six furlongs, but fell away beaten long before the last quarter had been run.

McChesney, giving away much weight to everything in the third race, the Morton Park Handicap, a dash of seven furlongs for two-year-olds, simply played with his field, winning in a canter by three lengths from Lucien Appleby, he beating Miracle II. two for second place. Contrary to expectations McChesney rushed into the lead after the first quarter had been run and was his own pacemaker thereafter. Lucien Appleby ran right to his best form. Miracle II. was tiring badly at the end and would have lost third place in another stride to Prona, which closed up fast after being badly outrun in the early part of the contest. Little Scout and I. Samelson cut little figure in the race after the first half mile had been run. McChesney is a high-class youngster and is much the best two-year-old now in training in the west.

The long distance affair twice around the circle proved an easy thing for Searcher. He simply cantered the last half mile in front of his field. He won by a head under strong restraint from Tammany Chief, he beating Kentucky Babe one length for second place. Tammany Chief finished with a rush in the last sixteenth under a weak ride and was much the best of the others. Kentucky Babe tired rapidly in the last eighth. Strangest ran a dull race and quit badly in the last quarter.

St. Cuthbert easily cantered home three lengths in front of Harry Herendeen in the day's opener, a dash of six furlongs. He was at his best and made his field look cheap, showing remarkable improvement in a short time. Harry Herendeen beat Star of Bethlehem two lengths for second place. The last named horse came fast at the end, beating Eummer in the last few strides for third place.

Duke of Connaught was the best of a field of twelve two-year-olds that faced the barrier in the second race, a dash of five furlongs. The race was spoiled somewhat in point of interest by the poor showing of Corinne Unland and Dandola which had no chance after the barrier arose, both meeting with an early entanglement that threw them hopelessly out of the contest. Duke of Connaught led for the first quarter and was then supplanted by Smith's Reel which held the van up to the last eighth post where he began to tire and sprawl. Duke of Connaught had little trouble in regaining the lead, holding it without much trouble to the end. He won easily by a length and a half while Jane Oaker beat Smith's Reel a half for second place. Aaron Pond showed speed for a half mile.

The finish in the last race of the season at Worth was one of the most intensely exciting of the meeting, Gonfalon, Constellator and Benckart passing over the line so closely together that none but the judges could separate them. Constellator led by a fair margin up to the last sixteenth, where Benckart closed up on him, the two hooking up for a hot tilt in the closing strides, but in the last fifty yards Coburn brought up Gonfalon with a rush next to the inside rail under a desperate drive and got his mount's head over the line first by a nose, while Constellator beat Benckart about the same distance for second place. The last named was probably the best, but Seaton rode him all over the track and was of little or no help to the horse when the pinch came. Pay the Fiddler finished with a rush and probably ran the best race of his career. The other two were always outrun.

An incident of the day was the purchase of the crack colt McChesney, by S. C. Hildreth, for the reported price of $10,000. It was said that Hildreth offered $8,000 for him before his race without avail but secured an option at $10,000 which the colt's showing in the race turned into a completed sale. As prices for good horses have gone this year he secured a bargain, and if he trains on next year in good and improving fashion it is quite within the range of probabilities that this fleet and staying son of Macduff will be a formidable candidate for American Derby honors and, mayhap, the winner.

Burns & Waterhouse wired Jockey Coburn they would pay a good salary and all expenses if he would come to the Coast and ride for them this winter, but he declined the offer.

F. Cook refused an offer of $6,500 yesterday for his two three-year-olds Odnor and Omdurman.

LATONIA'S SUCCESSFUL OPENING.

CINCINNATI, O., October 26.—Latonia's fall opening was a decided success from every point of view, with the possible exception of the book-makers standpoint. The weather was clear and cool, an ideal racing day, the track was fast and the attendance large, over 4,000 people turning out to witness the sport. There were no really close finishes, all the victories being rather clear cut, still the races were full of interest. The riding of Knight was the feature of the day, he winning four out of the six races.

In the betting sheds the twelve books present did a rushing business with the speculators and all the books quit loser on the day, four strongly played favorites winning. In the first race Baronet the favorite, finished in the bunch and the 15 to 1 shot Judge Steadman took the money. Favorites then had their inning, Ranco, Jack Rattlin, Henry Burt and Mabel Winn taking their races in easy fashion. The sixth was won by Bermuda Prince at 10 to 1.

If the attendance of today can be taken as an indication of the interest hereabouts in the racing this meeting will be one of the best ever held here in point of attendance.

NOW FOR LAKESIDE.

Never has the Lakeside track opened with fairer prospects than those heralding the meeting which opens tomorrow. A big bettor, after regarding Monday's card critically, remarked that it looked good enough for Harlem or Hawthorne. There is no apparent reason why it should not, seeing that all the best stables here, except George Bennett's, are taking up quarters at the Indiana track, which should enjoy a meeting superior in class to what the racing public has grown accustomed to expect at Roby. A competent and well tried set of officials will be in the points, so mistakes in placing horses are not likely.

There will be no falling off in riding talent, though there was a chance that Coburn would not ride at Lakeside. This was because he received a handsome offer from Burns & Waterhouse to ride in San Francisco until Christmas, but he turned it down and engaged to ride for Sam Hildreth during the Lakeside meeting, after which he will take a short vacation at Memphis before going on to New Orleans.

Yesterday the owners of fourteen of the twenty-four horses entered for the Lakeside Handicap, the principal feature of tomorrow's card, notified Secretary Nathanson they accepted the weights he had allotted. This unusual percentage of "contents" was a compliment to the Secretary's skill as handicapper, and it brought him many congratulations on landing such a feature race for his first day's card.

Notice!

Our local information bureau comes to an end after Monday unless something unusually good turns up. We will issue our handicap sheet daily but will have nothing special unless previously advertised. To begin with we have almost a sure winner at Lakeside for Monday. This good thing has worked phenomenally fast through the deep sand over the Indiana track and even in the syndicate ring will be at a long price.

AQUEDUCT MONDAY

At this track we have been particularly good. Our clients cleared up small fortunes on ordinary investments during the meetings at Aqueduct and Bunnings last fall. Our track man there demands a big salary, but he always delivers the goods and we go on the theory of "the best is always the cheapest."

Monday night at 11:30 our track correspondent leaves for San Francisco but we will not handle these races for at least two weeks to come. However, we may get a wire on something special earlier than expected. If so, watch for such which will be duly advertised. As usual we had a big majority of winners at Worth Saturday, our clients cashing in on four.

BUNCO-BRONCHO INFORMATION CO.

Gonfalon looked a 1 to 2 shot with extraordinary special scratched. The sheet reads: St. Cuthbert, win, a stiff limit bet; Harry Herendeen, place same; McChesney, Lucien Appleby, easily best; St. Marcos mortal pipe; Searcher's blood will send him the route; Gonfalon. On returning race trains daily from 5 to 10,000 of my sheets were distributed all this season regardless of winners or losers. St. Cuthbert and St. Marcos wired the entire world.

I will bet $1,000 to $100 that never before were so many telegrams to so near every part of the world in one night and forenoon as my books and Telegraph Co. will prove Tom Kingsley, 15; Orontas, 3; Amote, 3; Golden Glitter, 30; Fleetwing, 15; Red Hook, 1-2.

Monday I guarantee three winners, rain or shine, praying for rain to give you a 20 to 1 shot. Another extraordinary special Tuesday and Thursday at Latonia. A good thing shipped from here for a killing next Saturday.

SPECIAL DAILY CITY SHEETS WITH ALL RACES $1.00.

SIX SPECIALS FOR $10 OR $2 FOR ONE.

Wired to any part of the world. May require two weeks to deliver, as only wire horses of odds—not hot favorites.

McChesney, St. Marcos, Benckart were a few of our good things Saturday. Mr. Phinizy, our advertised 12 to 50 to 1 shot, was scratched at the last moment on account of the condition of the track.

Monday at Lakeside 6 to 20 to 1 Extra Special. Here is one that has worked fast enough to beat anybody's horse—handicap division not barred—is entered in a soft spot and barring accidents will gallop home.

We Shall Advise a Heavy Plunge. This is an opportunity for losers on the Chicago tracks to advantage of it. Besides this good thing there are two other horses that are WORLD GOOD BETS. One of them the handicappers rate as fourth choice, and with him we expect to SHOW YOU THE VALUE of our methods of work, which include every known way of obtaining information, that has gained us the support of the most successful plungers whom Chicago has known.

$1 463 (Fourteen hundred and ) won last week on $10 (ten dollars) bets for our patrons, playing our specials in form letter handicap. Try us a day or a week. You will never regret it.

I. Samelson ran well for five furlongs.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. Florian—Zitella.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next three driving. St. Marcos, under a skilful ride, finished with a fine burst of speed and was much the best at the end. Coburn never called upon him until well straightened away for home and he responded like a good race horse. Denman Thompson ran a good race and appeared dangerous in the last eighth, but faltered in the closing drive and would have lost second place in another stride. Omdurman, slightly out of when entering the stretch, got through luckily in the spread and finished with a rush. Bermencia ran an excellent race and was right there at the finish. Odnor had enough when a furlong out. Reeda gradually fell away beaten after the first six furlongs had been run. W. J. Deboe quit in the last quarter.

Went to post at 4:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won under a pull; second handily. Searcher is a stayer and simply cantered in the last half and won under restraint. Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Falcona.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Gonfalon came with a rush next to the inside rail in the last sixteenth and under a vigorous ride got up in time to win by a nose on the post. Constellator finished stoutly but Dominick seemed to be rattled in the closing strides. Benckart was probably the best at the weights but he was out off slightly at the first turn and received a weak throughout, Seaton being of little help to him. Pay the Fiddler finished with a great rush making up much ground in the last quarter. The others were never contenders.

Gonfalon, show, 1 to 3. Constellator, show, 7 to 10. Benckart, show, 1 to 2.

Winner--B. c. by The Commoner--Leora.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Leflare had to overcome a lot of bad racing luck. He was in a pocket on the backstretch and Troxler was forced to take him back and go around his field. He came away in the stretch and won well in hand. Lillian M. skinned the rail on the stretch turn and saved much ground by this. Sting's race was not to the mark. He should have been closer up. Chandoo, under bad handling, ran well. Clarena and Corinne C. were never serious factors.

Overweights--Leflare, 2 pounds; Lillian M., 2.

No show betting on first three.

Winner Br. f. by Quicklime--Elsie S.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 13 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Eleven Bells was best ridden and ran the best race of her career. Marion Lynch suffered from much interference and was probably the best. Revoke was badly handled. Beauchamp asked too much of the horse in the early stages and had nothing left at the end to stall off Eleven Bells and Marion Lynch. Frank Pearce ran well for the first three-quarters. Properly ridden he can win in slower company.

Scratched--28977 Ben O'Fallon, 107; 28957 Belle Simpson, 104; 28941 Lady Curzon, 104.

Overweights--Eleven Bells, 1 pound; Admiral Seney, 4; Napoleon Bonaparte, 2; Belle of Elgin, 1.

Eleven Bells, show, 1 to 2. Marion Lynch, show, 6 to 5. Revoke, show, out.

Winner--Ch. g. by Cayuga--Prudery.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving hard; second handily. Petit Maitre, as the race was run, was the best. He was cut off soon after the start and again on the first turn. Troxler was content to rate him down the backstretch. He then attempted to get through on the inside, but the field closed in and forced him to go around. He came with a great rush through the stretch and caught Peaceful in the closing strides. The latter ran in much improved form over his last previous effort and but for being weakly ridden at the end should have won. Lunar and Lady Strathmore were often bumped and suffered from much interference. Still it was asking too much of the last-named to concede so much weight. Found was the chief cause of all the bumping.

Petit Maitre, show, 1 to 2. Peaceful, show, 7 to 10. Lunar, show, out. Lady Strathmore, show, out.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. The first three fought it out through the final sixteenth. Deveric showed a flash of early speed. It was impossible to distinguish horses or colors on the backstretch and far turn on account of heavy fog and smoke.
